FRESHERS DAY

DATE: 18th October 2024

VENUE: Seminar Hall

EVENT DETAILS:

On October 18th, 2023, the college hosted a grand Freshers' Day celebration with the captivating theme, "Eldorado: The Lost City of Gold," and the tagline, "From the Sands to the Crown, She Reigns Supreme." This theme created a mysterious and royal atmosphere, making the quest for the "Freshie Queen" feel like an expedition through the lost city of gold. The event was specially crafted to welcome and celebrate the first-year students, giving them a platform to exhibit their talents, creativity, and uniqueness.

The selection process began with auditions on October 14th and 15th, designed to identify the most promising participants. On the first day, categories included Quiz, Creative Writing, Henna Art, Drawing, and Photography, giving participants an opportunity to display their intellectual and artistic abilities. The second day focused on the Performing Arts, with auditions in Dance, Singing, and Ramp Walk, allowing students to showcase their talent and stage presence. By the end of the auditions, the top ten finalists were chosen to compete for the prestigious Freshie Queen title.

The main event on October 18th began with Sheeba, the Cultural Secretary, as the Master of Ceremonies, guiding the program with energy and elegance. The opening prayer, led by Sharon, the Chapel Representative, set a reflective tone for the day, followed by a meaningful Bible reading by Nithyashree, the SCM Representative. Mehr, the Literary Coordinator, delivered the Welcome Address and introduced the theme, captivating the audience with the allure of the "Lost City of Gold."

After the dance, the first game was conducted by Dwani, the President, adding a lively and interactive segment to the program. The second round allowed finalists to showcase their individual talents, ranging from dance and music to unique skills, adding a personal and creative flair to the contest. The college's Western Dance Team then took the stage with a thrilling performance, blending various dance styles and bringing an international vibe to the event. Next, Jasmine, the Vice President, hosted the second game, engaging the audience and participants alike. In the third and final round, each finalist was asked a thought-provoking question by the judges, challenging them to think on their feet and reveal their perspectives.

To add a grand touch, the college's Fashion Team presented a dazzling fashion show that brought the theme of "Eldorado" to life, with students donning outfits inspired by the mythical city of gold. This was followed by a singing performance, further showcasing the diverse talents of the student body and creating an enchanting atmosphere. The highlight of the evening arrived with the announcement of the Freshie Queen. Aishwarya K. from 1st B.Sc. was crowned as the Freshie Queen, embodying the spirit of "From the Sands to the Crown, She Reigns Supreme." Her grace, confidence, and talent distinguished her among her peers, and the audience erupted in applause as she took the title.

The event concluded with a Vote of Thanks by Aishwarya, the Sports Representative
