

REPORT ON PANEL DISCUSSION

The Department of Sociology of Bishop Cotton Women's Christian College organized an Intercollegiate panel discussion on "Gender Discrimination in the Present Society" on 28th Nov 2022, 11.00am to 12.30pm in the Seminar Hall.

Ms. Riyana Raju engaged the audience in an interactive session on the problems and rights of transwomen. She discussed various gender sensitive issues by giving real life examples and her own experiences. She also spoke about sexual harassment women and transwomen face from ancient times till the present day. The participants were educated on the hormonal changes and its effects on transwomen.

She also addressed the participants to many exclusive examples and challenges in the world faced by them. She concluded the session by telling the audience to have a non-judgmental attitude and to accept every individual and their individuality with respect and dignity as we all are human beings.
